In a message to the Federation and its followers today, Mr W. G. Walkley, managing director of Ampol Petroleum Limited, said:

Tonight, as the second Ampol night soccer series comes to an end, the NSW Federation of Soccer clubs stands on the threshold of the biggest season in its brief but vigorous history.

I think you will agree that the wonderful contest for the Ampol Cup over the past six weeks have provided a fitting prologue to the exciting games you will see in the next few months.

As you all know, Ampol, for many years past, has endeavored to be a consistent and sincere supporter of sport in Australia.

I think the game as presented by the Federation is playing a very vital part in the social life of New South Wales.

Now that control of the soccer in this State has passed to the N.S.W. Federation of Soccer Leagues, and now that Federation has been granted affiliation with the Australian Soccer Football Association, I feel that the scope for soccer to do good in the whole Australian community has been increased enormously.

This great international game, as presented by the Federation in New South Wales, has provided a common meeting ground for many thousands of young people who today are helping to build a new Australia — the young people who have been born in Australia and the young people who have come from overseas to start a new life and a new home under the Suthern Cross.

Believe me, Ampol, as an all-Australian company, is very proud to have been able to join with the Federation in bringing old and new Australians together in the best of all environments — the field of sport.

We are proud also of the many thousands of new friends we have made through our association with soccer. We feel our help, even in a small way, has stimulated the rebirth of this great game in Australia.

We look forward to continuing our support.

To the players and officials of the clubs who have competed for the Ampol Cup and to the Federation officials who organised the matches I extend my warmest congratulations.

In a few weeks time you will have the Costa Ricans and the Hearts of Midlothion with you. I am certain these international matches will be memorable.

I am sure they will inaugurate a new era for soccer in Australia and will help lift the game to new heights both in standard of play and in popularity.

Fixtures Cards

The Federation expresses it appreciation to the Commonwealth Bank for its gesture in supplying 50,000 fixture cards for the 1959 season.

The Federation has received hundreds of complimentary messages on the issue of the cards and on the excellence of their quality.

Two thrillers lined up for Cup finale

The word, A m p o l, has become synonymous with good soccer.

We have watched the code make giant strides since this organisation became associated with Federation soccer two years ago.

Each year this competition has given the Federation sufficient finance to conduct the season's competitions since its inception.

This year a conservative estimate of the profit would be £4000.

The winners of tonight game will receive a magnificent trophy, plus £600.

So far Prague is undefeated, but their victories have not always been commanding.

Although at times they play delightful soccer it is not, as yet, sustained.

Never-the-less they are well on the way to top-class soccer and setting a merry pace for other Federation clubs to follow.

Their task tonight against Auburn is a formidable one, because Auburn never accept defeat until the final whistle.

One thing in Prague's favor is the fact that Auburn too, will endeavor to play soccer "according to the book".

This should suit Prague who hate to be "bundled" off the ball.

Auburn's switch of Quested to the defence has taken some thrust out of the forward-line.

Quested in the forward-line always got the best out of

LEN QUESTED

Hall, who combined nicely with him.

No doubt the loss of McAllister and Wilson sorely depleted the defence and in the light of this Quested's move is a good one.

Morrow has been among the goals since he joined Auburn

Prague and Sydney Austral clash in big game

Undefeated Prague and Sydney Austral meet at the Marks Field in what should be the 'Match of the Day' as both teams are on the top of the competition table after four rounds.

It is hardly a surprise to see Prague occupy the top spot, but Sydney Austral's great third place must come as a surprise to most fans.

I can assure you though that the red, white and blues deserve every bit of it, as they are playing extremely well.

As a matter of fact, I think the club is playing the best football of its history.

'Bustle' tactics

If the visitors can bustle Prague from start, then Baumgartner and his boys will find it very hard settle down to their traditional style of short-passing.

On the other hand if the Austrian international's find the way early to de Vries' goal, then they will take a lot of stopping.

I feel that De Vries, Mathysen, Abberbroek, Evans and Stoddart have what it takes to test their opponents, but whether Baumgartner and his boys will be subdued is another question.

I am tipping PRAGUE to win yet another match.

But the home team will certainly know that they have been playing, because Sydney Austral have a tremendous fighting spirit and are keen to stay unbeaten.

APIA — another undefeated team — plays Corrimal at Lambert Park and this match should draw the the best crowd of the season at Lambert Park.

Corrimal must have gained a lot of admirers after their magnificent displays in the Ampol night series.

APIA is one of the teams to beat this year and I am forecasting a very evenly contested match with honors going to APIA.

I feel that this APIA team is an eleven without major weaknesses.

With Marston once again in the top form and the inclusion of Jaksa, a very talented player, the Italo-Aussies are a top team.

They have some very hard matches coming along and will be keen to topple last year's minor premiers to prove that they will have to be reckoned with this year.

Useful forwards

Vasvary is probably one of of Australia's top players and the whole forward-line is very useful, though Schio needs a bit of polishing if he is to score more freely .

I am certainly not underestmating the South Coasters, as Corrimal is still one of the top teams this year, but their reshuffled forward-line has not settled down yet and it faces APIA's defence its best.

Budapest will be playing Auburn for the first time and could benefit from the the latter's hard Ampol Cup matches, but I think AUBURN will have the edge as they are a vastly more experienced side.

Budapest were actually a trifle lucky to draw with Gladesville and can thank Kaldy and Schopf, who were outstanding last week.

The 1958 Second Division champions can play fine soccer and if Voros and Galambos have a good day they will test Auburn, who are playing now as well as ever.

The clash between Schopf and Morrow will be one of the highlights of the match and fans will also be able to appreciate the difference of styles of both goalies.

Canterbury and North Side United should provide a very entertaining spectacle.

Both are speedy teams with good forwards.

The Canterbury defence — being by far the stronger — should turn the scales in their favor.

I expect CANTERBURY to beat North Side to remain undefeated.

The "Berries" did not play nearly as well as expected last Saturday against APIA, but they should win today.

Cousins is proving a worthy substitute for the ill-fated Don Brown.

North Side had a good win over Concord at Oval and once again Wong played a great part in his team's good performance.

Taber made a quiet come-back in the seconds and should settle down quickly, and with Walker's experience in the half back line,, Neil and Moore will be well covered.

This North Side team shows great promise and could develop in two years from now into one of the State's best.

The talent is surely available in the wide Northern district.

First win tipped

Balgownie badly need points and I would not be surprised if they opened their account when they play Gladesville on their home ground.

The South Coasters were only beaten by a penalty in the dying stages of the game against Sydney Austral and played generally a good match, with Robinson, Richardson and Ganis outstanding.

They will play host to Gladesville, who have a great potential and good players, but somehow the side does not seem to 'click' at the present moment.

Hough's return from New Zealand has been an invaluable addition.

Against Budapest, Gladesville had the better of the ball throughout and should have scored a comfortable win, but the forwards were slack and bottled-up in front of the goal-mouth.

They will have to play a lot better if they are to take Richardson unawares.

I am tipping BALGOWNIE to win its first Federation match, but Gladesville's coach, Murphy, could work out some scheme that might gain his team a DRAW.

Unlucky team

Bankstown could fully benefit from Hakoah's misfortunes and surprise on their home ground.

Hakoah is probably the most unlucky team in Sydney soccer as it is terribly weakened by injuries to star players.

The potential strong team has slipped after a very promising competition start.

It will face a stiff test against Bankstown, whose run of defeats must stop some day — so why not today against Hakoah, who were beaten 6—1 on the same ground last season?

Though Bankstown will be an improved team and the visitors a weakened and incomplete one I am still tipping luckless HAKOAH to win.

The match will be much harder than most people expect and I am tipping a Bankstown recovery very soon.

The Granville-Concord clash at McArthur Park should be a thriller, as both teams are of equal strength and both have one point and desperately need many more if they are to figure prominently this season.

Granville have not quite settled to the tempo of Federation soccer, though their team is quite solid with Hawkins, Cuneen and Garside in the backs and halves, and Lindner reliable as ever in goal.

Concord is a very young side — possibly the youngest with Canterbury ever to play top class soccer in Sydney — and I believe that we have not seen so far what this team really can do.

When McFarlan, Currie and Davies will have blended completely into the team, then Concord will have much brighter days ahead.

Bilbey will have to be watched very carefully.

He is one of the Federation's top goal-notchers and the Granville backs will have their hands full for the 90 minutes.

I think that the home team's two years in Federation soccer should tell and for that reason I am tipping CONCORD to win their first match of the season.

But if Granville can repeat its magnificent opening round match against Prague they could pull a surprise.

FROM the SIDELINES

By TAD TARG

FOOTBALL AT IT'S BEST.

Ampol Cup semi-finals last Wednesday provided some of the best football I have seen in Australia OR ENYWHERE ELSE.

Never before I have seen TWO First Division matches of that calibre on the same programme.

We saw FOUR clubs with strong defences, excellent forwards and spectacular goalkeepers.

Disregarding incidents, which are unavoidable in Cup games when there is so much at stake, the night will remain in our memories as a "most unforgettable one".

LET'S NOT BE PUSHED AROUND.

It took us two years to achieve our goal — affiliation.

Very nice, but...

We are already being told what to do and what not to do.

One example is the visit of Deportivo Saprissa.

We can't have them here because of this and that.

Don't you think we ought to start telling other States what to do?

For instance — how to wake up to themselves?

THE OTHER PROBLEM arising indirectly from the affiliation is the outcry of some States over players imported from Europe and Britain.

These players were brought here, some States claim, in spite of FIFA rules and no transfer fees were paid.

Quite so.

But let us not be narrow-minded about it.

Besides Australian immigration policy — that any physically and mentally fit person is allowed to settle in this wonderful country of ours, and, consequently, to play soccer, billiards or tiddly-winks, if he wishes, there ARE OTHER REASONS WHY FIFA SHOULD BE ONLY TO GLAD TO HELP US:

We are building a new soccer power here.

FIFA should be happy about it and see it our way just as much as we do.

FIFA and international soccer have much to gain and nothing to lose.

Overseas players are a big gain to us and no real loss to their respective countries of origin, provided we draw our players from different clubs.

In five to ten years we won't need any "imports".

In the meantime FIFA will gain another powerful and rich soccer country.

Two thrillers lined up for £1000 Ampol Cup finale and O'Neil will have to be at his best to hold this wily customer.

Speed will be a deciding factor in this game, as Prague's game of precision passing will have to be countered by speed and anticipation.

Auburn appeared a shade slow against Canterbury last week, so they will have to be at their very best against Baumgartner and his boys.

There is little to chose between the goalkeepers.

Lord and Hendersen have few peers in Australia.

Half backs Sherwin, O'Neill and Scheinflug are on a par with Henderson, Duff and Quested, while Schirato and Purcell would have little on Smith and Wallace.

It all adds up to a great game, with both teams eager to win the coveted Ampol Cup.

Tonight's Early game should also be a thriller.

Last week's losers, Canterbury and Corrimal, will fight it out for the minor prizes.

Those teams went down narrowly in last week's semi-finals and with a shade of luck both could have been fighting out the final tonight.

The fans won't be disappointed with this game.

Canterbury seldom play substandard soccer and like Corrimal are always an attraction wherever they go.

So far both teams have had a hectic programme but are still capable of playing attractive soccer.

Both goalkeepers — Brown and Orvad had some spectacular saves last week.

J. CURRY

They are pressing both Lord and Henderson closely for inclusion in the Federation team.

North and Jones are a grand pair of young defenders and quite a match for the more experienced Taylor and Bignall.

Halves Cousins, Curry and Stocks are a clever trio, who work tirelessly, playing their forwards with all kinds of passes.

Neal is almost certain to miss this match.

However Watkiss, Young, Moore and Salisbury are among the best of our local-born players.

Corrimal's half back line of Peters, Williams and Young appears formidable.

Their forwards Burns, Rowles, Learmonth, Drain and Stewart will provide plenty of opposition for Curry and his boys.

Victorian News and Views

From L. K. STONE

Olympic Park will again feature the best matches of each round, one on Saturdays and one on Sundays.

No curtain raisers will be allowed at the Park and reserve fixtures of clubs engaged there must be played elsewhere.

It is not always easy to find an alternate ground for the reserve teams and some club officials' enthusiasm with regard to the privilege of playing at Olympic Park, despite somewhat higher gate takings, has been severely dampened.

Scotish soccer club, Hearts of Midlothians will be seen in action at Olympic Park on May 30 and 31 and record crowds are expected for both matches.

Last year's Blackpool visit was a great success and Victorian Soccer Association's profit was £9000 according to Mr Steward Beaton, the secretary.

Referees' pay

It is all the more amazing then that the chairman of the VSFA, Mr Thomas, was against this tour, saying that Australia should send a team overseas instead.

A move by Juventus should please referees, who do not always find it easy to referee matches of this crack Italian team.

Mr Andrea, the secretary said: "Referees are underpaid and my club will make a £2 donation to each one refereeing matches in which my club is the home team".

He is confident that other clubs will follow Juventus' example.

Of course, this suggestion has to be ratified by the Council.

Juventus will move a resolution that referees' fees should be increased by £2 to make it £5 par match, at the next meeting of the State League Management Committee.

All State League clubs will have enclosed grounds this season and an admittance of 4/- will be charged.

It is rumored that State League players Lauchran (Moreland), De Bruyekere (Wilhelmina), Cubero (Juventus), and Bors (Hakoah) are negotiating to play with NSW Federation clubs.

These players are four of Victoria's best.
